Meeting ID: 160 401 9050

Passcode: 770772

1. Purposes and Agenda. Before the conference, counsel must confer and seek consensus on items to address during the conference. Items shall include a proposed discovery plan under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f), a proposed scheduling order under Rule 16(b), a proposed schedule for leadership applications, and settlement. The parties are ORDERED to file a consolidated notice of proposed agenda items on or before April 24, 2023. The notice need not take any particular form, but shall indicate areas of agreement or stipulation by the parties, as well as highlight issues that require resolution by the Court during the conference. Additional case management orders that are proposed by one or more of the parties may be attached as exhibits to this notice.

2. List of Affiliated Companies and Counsel. To assist the Court in identifying any potential recusal or disqualification issues, the parties are ORDERED to file a Certificate of Interested Persons and, if applicable, Corporate Disclosure Statement, on or before April 24, 2023. These filings may be made jointly or individually.

3. Admission and Appearance of Counsel. Any counsel wishing to appear in this case must enter a formal appearance and be listed on the docket of this MDL proceeding. Attorneys admitted to practice and in good standing in any United States District Court may appear pro hac vice in this litigation. No motion or application for admission is required, nor is association with local co-counsel necessary.

4. Communication with the Court. All communications with the Court must be either filed on the docket of this MDL proceeding, or emailed to chambers with copies to all counsel listed on the docket. Emails may be sent to Courtroom

Deputy Sonya Lee-Coggins, at Sonya.Lee-Coggins@gand.uscourts.gov.

5. Litigation Stay. Aside from the deadlines set forth in this Order, all other procedural and pre-trial deadlines are STAYED until the Court holds its initial case management conference.

Entered this 23rd day of March, 2023.
